

Sinclair's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is undemocratic and a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Because Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it is obligated by law to serve the public interest. I am not interested in the agenda of a big corporation. I want and deserve to see real people from my own community. I want to see and hear more balanced reporting and interpretations of what is going on in the world.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process definitely needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
